

Economic Development in a Globalized World
Alain de Janvry, David Roland-Holst, and Elisabeth Sadoulet
University of California at Berkeley
Course outline EEP151/Econ 171 Fall 2009
Updated December 3, 2009

- Chapter 1. What is development? Issues and indicators (2 classes)
- Chapter 2. The state of development
- Chapter 3. History of development
- Chapter 4. Poverty and vulnerability analysis (2 classes)
- Chapter 5. Inequality and inequity
- Chapter 6. International trade and development (2 classes)
- Chapter 7. Explaining economic growth: the macro level
- Chapter 8. Modern perspectives on economic growth
- Chapter 9. Population and development
- Chapter 10. Labor and migration
- Chapter 11. Financial crises and stabilization (not used)
- Chapter 12. International finance and development
- Chapter 13. Financial services for the poor
- Chapter 14. Development aid and its effectiveness
- Chapter 15. Human capital: Education and health (education only)
- Chapter 16. Impact evaluation of development interventions
- Chapter 17. Sustainable development and the environment (2 classes)
- Chapter 18. Management of common property resources and determinants of cooperation
- Chapter 19. Development, resources, and climate change
- Chapter 20. Agriculture for development
- Chapter 21. Institutional economics
- Chapter 22. The economics of farm households and rural development (2 classes)