Sofia Berto Villas-Boas Short Biography

Sofia Berto Villas-Boas is a Professor in the Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics at U C Berkeley. Born in Portugal in 1971 she received her Ph.D. in Economics from U. C. Berkeley in May 2002. Her research interests include industrial organization, consumer behavior, food policy, and environmental regulation. Her recent empirical work has focused on the economics behind wholesale price discrimination banning legislation, contractual relationships along a vertical supply chain, and identifying the role of those contracts in explaining pass-through of cost shocks along the supply chain into retail prices that consumers face. Sofia has published in the top economics and field journals such as Review of Economic Studies, Management Science, Rand Journal of Economics, and the Journal of Environmental Economics and Management.
